AMENDMENT TO THE COMPREHENSIVE PLAN (2003 EDITION)

MODIFY:

Fairfax County Comprehensive Plan, 2003 Edition, Area II, Vienna Planning District, as amended through 7-11-2005, District-Wide Recommendations, Heritage Resources, page 9:

Fairfax County Comprehensive Plan, 2003 Edition, Area III, Upper Potomac Planning District, as amended through 7-11-2005 District-Wide Recommendations, Heritage Resources, page 11; and

Fairfax County Comprehensive Plan, 2003 Edition, Area II, Fairfax Planning District, as amended through 7-11-2005, District-Wide Recommendations, Heritage Resources, page 10 to read:

“There are known and potential heritage resources located along the 7.2-mile length of Hunter Mill Road, a portion of which lies within this Planning District. Such resources include sites or structures that are evidence of Native American occupation, pre-Revolutionary and Civil War activities, and the County’s agrarian past. Actions to document these heritage resources, and to protect and preserve those that are determined by the County to be of historic or archaeological significance are underway and should be encouraged. Hunter Mill Road has been determined to be eligible for listing in the Virginia Landmarks Register and the National Register of Historic Places. The determination of eligibility is the first step in the process for being listed on the Virginia Landmarks and/or the National Register of Historic Places. Hunter Mill Road has also been designated as a Virginia Byway.”
